MEET OUR SCHOOL MENTORS AND SCHOOL SOCIAL WORKER

LEFT TO RIGHT: MR. ABE, MISS MEAGAN AND MISS KALEY

Westview JP School Mentors

Meagan Crawford & Abe Lancaster

Jordan's Principle is a federal program designed to help First Nations youth in Canada. The role of a school mentor is to provide mentorship within Westview school that supports First Nation students through positive extracurricular programs, mental health assistance, academic support, and to make positive connections with youth.

When students have been connected to mentors in the past, the following positives have been noted: improved attendance, student goal attainment, improved self-esteem, regulated emotions, conflict resolution and support for grade 8 transition planning.

We are SO lucky to have the AMAZING duo, Miss Meagan and Mr. Abe at Westview every day of the week!

Westview School Social Worker

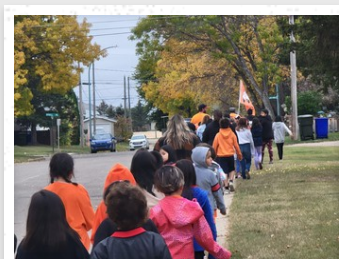

Kaley Spigott

Mrs. Kaley is our School Social Worker at Westview every day of the week, except Tuesdays. The role of the School Social Worker is to provide school-based intervention services to assist students and their families. Mrs. Kaley provides short-term counselling and short-term case management services for students who are experiencing social, emotional and/or behavioural problems. She initiates referrals to human services agencies and with permission, can be the connection between these agencies, the family and the school community.

School Social Workers are people who students can turn to when they need some help. If you are interested in accessing School Social Worker support you can give her a call and fill out a consent form. Mrs. Kaley loves working with students and is happy to support students and their families navigate some of life's most difficult challenges. 😊
